For our Veterans, returning to civilian life can be challenging. Many suffer from the invisible wounds of battle with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder or PTSD. This often-devastating side effect of service impacts not just our Servicemembers and Veterans, but their families too.

Connected Warriors provides a progressive healing modality bringing peace and community to our nation's Service members, Veterans and their Families with classes available in 24 states and 9 countries, in yoga studios, community centers, on 14 active duty military bases, 37 VA Hospitals and Vet Centers.
